

PROOFREADING

Instructor: Joan Yi

Course Outline

Course Description

Proofreading 101 is designed to prepare you to proofread books based on The Chicago Manual of Style and to sharpen your proofreading skills as an editor.

Students will get real-life practice with homework and quizzes designed to test their knowledge. The instructor's feedback and group discussions make this an engaging way to hone your proofreading skills.

Lesson One: Introduction

- Why Is Proofreading So Important?
- Reference materials
- Glossary of terms
- Tools and methods
 - Microsoft Word
 - Adobe Acrobat PDF
 - Google Docs
 - PerfectIt
- Checklist
- Tips

Lesson Two: Usage

- Types of typos
- Inconsistencies
- Formatting
- Usage
- Commonly misused words

Lesson Three: Spelling

- Common misspelled words
- US vs British spelling

- Hyphenation
- Numbers
- Slang
- Sound words
- Tech terms

Lesson Four: Punctuation

- Commas
- Periods
- Apostrophes
- Quotation Marks
- Ellipses
- Dashes
- Capitalization
- Italics
- Numbers
- Quoting Other Sources (including Scripture)

Lesson Five: Grammar

- Modifiers
- Pronouns
- Comma splice
- Myths
- Dialogue